

SEEKING INFORMATION

JACQUELINE VIGIL

Carjacking and Homicide Victim
Albuquerque, New Mexico
November 19, 2019

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $25,000 for information leading to the identification and arrest of the individual(s) responsible for the homicide of Jacqueline Vigil.

DETAILS

The Federal Bureau of Investigation's Albuquerque Field Office, along with the Albuquerque Police Department in New Mexico, are seeking the public's assistance in locating the individual(s) responsible for the homicide of Jacqueline Vigil in 2019.

Vigil, who was 55 years old at the time of her death, was the mother of two New Mexico State Police Officers. She was fatally shot in her driveway while in her 2006 Cadillac sedan on November 19, 2019. Vigil was about to go to the gym.

On November 27, 2019, police located and recovered a Jeep they believe was involved in the homicide.

If you have any information related to this homicide, please contact the FBI's Albuquerque Field Office at (505) 889-1300, or submit tips at tips.fbi.gov.

You may also contact your local FBI office, or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.

Field Office: Albuquerque